

INTERNATIONAL NETWORKS MEETING

Europrev Working Group Mental Health and Family Violence & European family Justice Centers Association

2 DECEMBER 2017 IN BRUSSELS

Venue : Royal Library

FAMILY JUSTICE CENTERS & THE HEALTH SECTOR

Inter-sectoral exchange and networking of Family Justice Centers & related multidisciplinary approaches with Health Care

Aims :

- Promote multi-sectorial collaboration between health care professionals , specialized services in social welfare , mental health and law enforcement.
- Develop a common platform to promote and study effective training and care

Registration for the meetings is free of charge but obligatory.

Venue : Royal Library Brussels

Registration:

Register for this invitational meeting 2nd December afternoon using exclusively this form beneath.

Hotel accomodation is provided free of charge for one delegate per country to Europrev and Vasco Do Gamma selected participants which register before 18th November through :

<https://fs10.formsite.com/FAMVIOLENCE/declarationofinterest/index.html>

Register separately for 1th December December session on the website:
www.efjca.eu (suggested Hotel also on this website)

Closing date: 18th of November 2017.

MULTISECTORIAL CARE AND THE HEALTH CARE SECTOR

PROGRAMME 2nd of December:

9.00: Registration

9.15: Opening and summary of the first day for new attenders. Bert Groen en Leo Pas

9.30: Plenary session:

Engaging health care in the multi-agency approach of domestic violence, child abuse and sexual violence. Introduction to the topics for discussion. Leo Pas and Pascale Franck

9.50 Hagit Dascal and Kelsey Hegarty WONCA Special Interest Group Family Violence^o

10.00: Workshops

Organized according to interest and participants can choose two workshops.

1. Assessing risks in different collaborative models moderators: B Groen & Raquel Gomez
2. Sharing information: pitfalls and solutions moderators: L Pas & N Kopcavar
3. Inter-sectoral cooperation and (mental) health care moderators: J Kenkre & P Franck

10.45-11.15: Coffee Break

11.15-12.00: Second round of workshops

4. Assessing risks from different professional perspectives (switch)
5. Sharing information: pitfalls and solutions (switch)
6. Inter-sectoral cooperation and (mental) health care (switch)

12.00-13.00: Plenary session: Wrap-up from workshops by reporters

Europrev Working Group Mental Health and Family Violence meeting

Planning effective counseling for Family Violence in health care

13.00 Sandwich lunch for those who remain for this invitational* session

(*NB. A project proposal will be circulated to inscribed attenders)

13.30-13.45 Stimulating detection, counseling & collaborative care. L Pas, Europrev

13.45-14.00 Motivational interviewing or MAPS ? Elena Bozdog & A Sidor, Response

14.00-14.15 Dealing with cultural diversity O Ezzat El Sharif, WONCA WPWFM

14.15-14.30 Training priorities in health care R Gomez, WONCA SIGFV

14.30-15.15 Debate : How to develop a gender and diversity sensitive counseling strategy ?

Moderating : Mateja Bulc: Chair Europrev

15.15-15.30 Coffee break

Planning a multi-sectorial blended learning strategy internationally:

Overview of training initiatives and online materials for Health care

15.30-15.40 Teaching basic communications skills for FV° J Usta & L Pas

15.40-15.50 Toolner tool° C Fernandez Alonso & Raquel Gomez

15.50-16.00 UNFPA, Response & WHO training packages L Pas, Elena Bozdog & N Kopcavar

° online demonstration

16.00-16.45 Debate : How to integrate available tools into an effective collaborative multidisciplinary and multisectorial blended learning strategy ?

Moderating : L Pas